REVISION OF CHILD ALLOWANCE SYSTEM

児童手当の制度改正について

The child allowance system was revised and will go into effect in October/2024. All allowance recipients were already notified about the revision in late August. Households that are required to undergo proper procedures should do so, before the deadline.

Main changes after revision

- Raise of the eligibility age limit to 18 years old (equivalent to high school students' age range)
- Abolishment of household income ceiling
- Allowance amount increase for the third and subsequent children
- Allowance payment every 2 months (6 times a year on even-numbered months)

Remarks:

- High school students will be eligible until the next March 31, after the 18th birthday
- Payment notifications will no longer be sent from December 2024 (check payment through bank passbook)

Households that are required to apply

- Households that currently are not receiving the allowance, but have a child in high school (or equivalent age range)
- Households that are currently receiving child allowance for 2 or more children and have another child in the university/college age range

Application Procedure

Online application form, mail or at city hall counter

Application deadline

October 11 (Fri)/2024

Remarks

- Application before the deadline = allowance will start from October
- Application until March 31, 2025 = allowance will be retroactive to October/2024
- Application from April 1, 2025 = allowance will start from the month following the application.
